

Personal data

We do not collect personal data such as name, address, phone number or E-mail address through our website, unless the internet user provides such data voluntarily to us (e.g. contact form). Collection, processing and utilisation of personal data will be done solely for a specific purpose and in accordance with applicable data protection regulations. We will not use personal data without consent of each particular internet user in ways other than resulting from this privacy declaration.

Data security

Access to personal data is limited to employees of UNIQUE AIRCRAFT and affiliated companies as well as authorised distributors and commercial agents. We ensure that personal data provided to us by an internet user to process his/her inquiry or, in addition, for advertising purposes will not be passed on to third parties. Third party means any natural or legal person, public authority, organisation or any other entity other than the person concerned, the person responsible for the processing, the processor and the persons who, under the direct authority of the responsible person or the processor, are entitled to process the data.

We only process personal data for the purposes for which it has been collected and in accordance with these data-protection regulations. We check our data collection, storage and processing processes to ensure that we only collect, store and process personal data which is necessary for the indicated purposes or for other purposes that are permitted in compliance with data-protection regulations. We implement appropriate measures to ensure that personal data which we process is complete and up-to-date.

Automatically collected, non-personal data

When a user accesses our website, information which cannot be attributed to a specific individual person (e.g. internet browser or operating system used, number of visits) is automatically collected. We use this information to help us to assess the attractiveness of our website and to improve its content and functionality.

Cookies

A cookie is a small piece of information which enables us to offer our users customised and personalised services. The cookie will be stored on the hard disk of each user until he/she deletes it. The internet user can set his/her browser so that the browser informs him/her about cookies or automatically prevents their storage. If an internet user does not store our cookie, he/she will still be able to visit our website; however, the use of individual offers might be limited.

Announcement of changes

This data-protection declaration may be subject to changes from time to time. In this case, we will make the revised version of the declaration available online here. Since changes may be made at any time, without the user being informed in any other way, we ask all users of our website to regularly read this data-protection declaration. Please note that our rights related to the use of the personal data of our users is always subject to the most recent version of the data-protection declaration.

Updating your personal data and revocation

Each internet user can check, change or delete the personal data provided to us by sending an E-mail with the corresponding content to info@unique-aircraft.de. The internet user can also revoke at any time his/her consent once given to the use of their data.
